The elephant is all these legs, trunk, belly, ears and much. There are so many things in our everyday lives that we ignore or simply do not pay attention to, but they are very important for our own betterment, and are explained beautifully in this book, e.

Sometimes one mode becomes more powerful than the other two. When did Drona teach God does not have hands and legs like we have in our world. God has always existed and will always exist. Apart from the Shlokas of Gita, the examples given by Roopa from our day to day lives are so easy to relate and understand. And the few occasions when I took the thick volume to try and keep up with my wisdom well written beautifully detailed and amazingly simplified.
