But such a victory would also cost the life of Adele's beloved Greyfriar. I did not give this book five stars because Greyfriar's angst got on my nerves on more than one occasion. Upon further reflection, Greyfriar is also a 5 star book, in my opinion, although this book is better.

And since they both like those things, they put them all in the Vampire Empire. This is particularly true with how the political intrigue gets into the meat of the story and makes it that much more interesting. More filters.

The story is not complex, it reads simple, but not simplistic. Are you thinking about the book. The Rift Walker is the second book in a trilogy of high adventure and alternate history.
