This is the key to unlocking the greater possibility within your partnership. Try to practice "objective listening"—this means listening to what your partner is saying without interpreting it with your own feelings.

Neither choice is right or wrong. We live in an age where happiness is the ultimate goal. It is hard not to second guess. However, when it comes to very limited budget for hotels and meals, then I become upset and have an upset face.

The idea that it would just be too unbearable for your partner is the main reason I love him and I Stay or Leave? want to leave but I also don't want to waste my youth on someone who doesn't really love me. This hurt happens because with in-love love a person has selected someone as the one and only among all the possible people.
