Inlifetoo, everything does not always go your way. The technical code. I can relate to this book when it talks about all the hard work he put in and people he avoided i know what it feels like to be not looked at as one of the best in high school or just the hard work and people don't understand your grind our passion that you have for the game in basketball or in any sport. If u r interested in sports this a book for you, but this is also about what made MJ the hero that every looks up to, and teaches you how to follow in his relentless drive to be the best.
