About this product Synopsis Brett Baldwin is a Texas chef who keeps his life, his emotions, and especially his restaurant, Mesquite, under careful control. The story itself was great RainaatCo-LabProjects. He was a beloved icon, an eccentric piece of Texas fauna who performed live only once a year, attracting thousands to an outdoor concert to close out Terlingua's storied chili cook-off. The spotlight shifts with the arrival of a refined older woman abandoned by Ramirez long ago, who insists she's still his wife and heir.
