This was a book that, once I'd started reading, I simply couldn't put it. I think I was laughing, sighing, cringing and shouting with and at Tom.

This gives the reader the feeling of getting to know them as Tom gets to know them. Of tobacco, "cut in fine shreds," it is recorded from ; of carpets, rugs. The story may start slow but becoming page turner, which will keep you wonder until the last chapter. Greylaggoose. All in all an enjoyable, light read. Janice had spent the afternoon gathering mushrooms not far from the old railway line, heading out on her bicycle after bunking off work for the afternoon. So who were these men?
