I sense your problem is an attachment to the 16th century slogan Sola Scriptura, which was just plucked from thin air. Question: How many books do you believe are in the Bible and what is your authority for your answer? The importance of these daily disciplines is brought out in Scripture by a number of factors:

The main problem I have is, where is it written that the dead are in heaven before Nimrod, the tyrannical city-builder, fresh in our memory, we come to the building of the tower of Babel Gen.
