Join Reverso, it's free and fast! Also, the formulation of sound laws through the comparative method is indeed based on vocabulary. Do let them be borne on the lips of men and circulate through all the wide regions where the Roman tongue is spoken. It appears Cortez hasn't. In reality, phonetic and semantic shift mean that a word may change radically in sound and meaning. None of this, however, proves that Russian was nobody's native language. Do your own research.
