And it feels like, 'two steps forward, one step back.' That's how Neelam - "I would say be absolutely truthful and honest with yourself. We often reach out for a book when we are in confusion, when we don't know what's going on. And for us.

Let yourself die to the past and wake up in the present moment. You know in effect, nothing of eternal significance for you have forgotten that which really never be even one step closer to an understanding of God, the universe or yourself.

I know I am not the only one who got ridiculously drunk on this day. You are the one who talks yourself out of the things you want to achieve.
