I read it on an airplane and laughed out loud so many times everyone either hated my guts or came over to see what I was reading. I always remember how Luka and Ina, and a car load of friends would drive up 99 and later I-5, from San Pedro for the entire day.

Our futures—tootenuous. The Mystery of the Great Swamp. Norman, a young boy who cleans brushes at the signmaker's shop, decides to make a few signs of his own when the signmaker isn't around to supervise. It was a rough journey so the boys at times had to form a litter with their arms and hands and physically carry the doctor through the deep snow. I couldn't find Snip the Tailor as part of an anthology, but I did find it as an individual book.

All it can do is observe—it does not like what it sees. The tightly-structured program does an admirable job of covering other major areas of his life, most notably his time in the military that culminated with him becoming a celebrated fighter pilot during the Korean War. The story line is set in North Dakota.
