What follows works on every level. Ava dreams of building a better life through her island pop songs. It adds a whole other layer to that beautiful and emotional moment from Forme. His father drives a city bus, and his mother keeps house. On paper, Girlfriend looks like a fairly good idea: A sweet little jukebox musical about two Nebraskan young men who find themselves attracted to each other right after high school graduation and their journey toward self-awareness of their own sexuality, done in about 90 minutes. Elizabeth Sinclair, working on the fringes of the... More. Iron Curtain Speech. Other portable props help smooth the many scene changes.
