Father Brown is a fictional character created by English novelist G. K. Chesterton, who stars in 52 short stories, later compiled in five books.

When it comes to the world of Sherlock Holmes, I feel like my enthusiasm is a bit differently aligned than that of the majority of mystery fans. I'm equally excited about G.K.
Chesterton's Father Brown stories, for example, or Rex Others, I feel , only become complete when the reader makes the Other books in this series. I get the definite feeling that Chesterton didn't really like writing the books - certainly after the first two.
