If by the social influence of A we are to understand as is the most obvious interpretation the power he exercises over the convictions Considerations On The Government Of Poland inclinations of others through the affection with which he inspires them, or the high opinion they entertain of him, all this influence he will possess under equal and universal suffrage. A person who can read, write and calculate, but who knows nothing of the properties of natural objects, or of other places and countries, or of the human beings who have lived before him, or of the ideas, opinions, and practices of his fellow-creatures generally, is not so good as a person who knows these things. Introduction,p. In the United States, the large slave population are excluded from political power, and almost from legal rights; whilst their interests and feelings are set at naught by the Governments, and are scorned or slighted by the great majority of the public. At that time it was the only way to apply democracy to anything larger than a city-state, and Poland-Lithuania was the first country to do it.
