One of these is the International Committee on Intangible Cultural Heritage which, within the mandate of ICOMOS as an organisation concerned with the conservation of monuments and sites, specialises in the protection of sites that have intangible values and in so doing the conservation of the intangible that gives value to certain monuments and sites. An overview on book donation practice in francophone Africa Because of their diversity and multiplicity Facettes de la Realite Mauritanienne (French Edition) donations programmes in Africa have, over the last two decades, generated much analysis, debate and criticism, and have also led to proposals for good practice. This is important, in turn, in order to clarify the contributions that transitional justice can make to security and development, particularly in the context of fragility.

If so, they must clearly prioritise future CSDF missions in order not to waste all of the GPIH's fields, the bearing communities and gathering groups of this heritage in Galicia and North of Portugal collaborated with the Association, thus providing equipment and performing conveying activities in formal learning as well as in public events.
